Isaac Taylor House was built in 1792 by the Great, Great, Great Grandfather of musician, James Taylor.

During the Civil War, Union soldiers took over the first two floors as quarters. The Taylor sisters moved to the third and fourth floors. Using the pulley basket for provisions, the sisters didn't come out for the duration of the war.

Reserve the Isaac Taylor Garden for weddings, receptions, rehearsal dinners, corporate functions, private parties, oyster roasts, or ticketed event fundraisers.
